Upcoming Events

Anson Chan to speak on April 28

Remember to reserve your place for the upcoming talk by Anson Chan, former Chief Secretary:

Date: April 28, 2005

Time: 7:00pm

Venue: American Club, Washington Room, 47/F

Visit of President Amy Gutmann

Penn has informed us that the visit of President Gutmann has been postponed to May 2006. This should give the Club more time to organize the Welcome Event.

Past Events

Benjamin Franklin's Birthday

Along with Penn Clubs around the world, a number of young alums got together to celebrate Benjamin Franklin's birthday at Lan Kwai Fong. All present had a good time.

Penn Roundtable Dinner Series

Jack van der Camp, Columnist for the SCMP spoke to Club members at the FCC on February 24, 2005. All present enjoyed his views and forecasts on the Hong Kong economy.

Benefits to Penn Club Members

Debbie Hung, Penn Club Member and founder of the Science Workshop (together with Dannie Hongchoy, wife of Penn Club Member George Hongchoy) has agreed to give special discounts to children of Penn Club Members. For information about the Science Workshop, check with <http://www.scienceworkshophk.com>.

For information about the discount, call 2523-5533 (Central Workshop, ask for Iris) and 3118-6787 (Causeway Bay Workshop, ask for Davis).

A photo in the Penn Library's Marian Anderson Collection is the inspiration for a United States Black Heritage commemorative stamp. The stamp, depicting opera singer and Philadelphia native Anderson wearing an burgundy colored dress, is based on a black-and-white 1934 Mois Benko photograph housed at the University of Pennsylvania Annenberg Rare Book and Manuscript Library.
